Nominations for the GMLC Spirit Award 2008

In 1991, the GMLC instituted the Spirit Award. This award goes to a person or group that embodies the spirit of literacy in action in our community. The award is given at our annual meeting, and the names of the recipients are listed on a plaque, which is displayed in the meeting room at Literacy Services of Wisconsin.

Nominations for 2008 are open. If you wish to nominate a committee, group or an individual, submit your nomination using the criteria listed below. Please provide enough details about the nominee to give the selection committee a thorough idea of the person's or group's contributions.

Name of Nominee: _____

Affiliation: _____

Submitted by: _____

Affiliation: _____

Please tell why you think the person or group should receive the Spirit Award or the Community Service Award. Nominees will be rated on a one to ten scale in the following areas:

1. The length of time the individual or group has been involved in adult literacy.
2. The hours per week invested in adult literacy.
3. The accomplishments of the individual or group.
4. The degree to which the individual or group connects with the broader literacy community, including the GMLC, to promote the goal of literacy to the community-at-large.
5. Does the nominee work on special projects beyond job obligations? What is the impact of the projects on adult literacy?

Send nominations to Spirit Award Selection Committee, c/o Sue Nemetz, GMLC,
